

GLOBAL
ROAD SAFETY
PARTNERSHIP

Helmet Standards Study

Rob Klein

GRSP Regional Director

2007

GLOBAL
ROAD SAFETY
PARTNERSHIP

Helmet Standards Study

Identified in Helmet workshops of some countries was the need to develop standards. GRSP has commenced a study to review comparative performance of relevant helmets standards and identify options for adoption including audit, self certification and training requirements, study areas include:

Areas of protective coverage

Dynamic retention test requirements

Helmet stability test requirements

Impact test requirements

Penetration test requirements

Labelling and certification requirements

Identify options for standard implementation and auditing.

Possible subsequent training program